BEEN AND ALAKEA STREETS.

How tired you look. How you long for a good rest. It's work through the day and worry through the night. Already you have nervous dyspepsia, nervous sick headache, and neuralgia. Your food distresses you. You are "all tired out," and you suffer from terrible depression.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is what you need. It keeps you up when especially pressed with work. It cures dyspepsia, and it builds up exhausted nerve tissue.

Pure, rich blood, a strong digestion, a clear skin, steady and vigorous nerves; these may all be yours if you only use this great blood-purifying and blood-forming medicine.

YESTERDAY'S RACE MEET

GOOD SPORT THOUGH SLOWLY
SERVED UP.

Waldo J and Molly Connors Prove Best
Horses on the Track—Old Amario
Also Still Sprints.

In most respects yesterday's day of sport at Kapiolani park track was entirely satisfactory. It was quite hot and, at times, was dusky, somewhat marring the pleasure of the occasion. Although there were a few small accidents on the track and all the sure winners did not win, as usual, the program was probably all that might have been expected.

At the opening hour the crowd was not of the best but the grand stand gradually filled until at noon when there was a very fair turnout. The Jockey club stand was full all day.

The first race on the day's program was a bicycle race for colored riders. Sydney Boyd and J. P. Wood were the real competitors. The latter led all the way round and home. The purse was $25.

Half mile dash—Venus and Amethyst were left at the pole. Vioris, Racery and Molly Connors, in turn set the pace, the latter ending first by two lengths; time, 51.

2:40 class, one mile—The entries were Nettie H., Artie W. and Edna G. Before a good field could be secured the Jockey club posted an additional prize of $100. Artie W. did not do so well, the race from the beginning resting between Nettie H. and Edna G. They ran an even race to the stretch where the former responded well to the whip and crossed the line ahead. Time, 2:23 1/2. Nettie H. took the second heat even easier; time, 2:29.

Five furlongs dash, for Hawaiian bred horses—In this event old Amario proved that he is not yet dead, winning the race in 1:06 3/4. The start was a poor one but the race was quite lively.

Mile trotting and pacing for the California Feed Company's Cup—In this event Leahl, although the favorite, was shut out. Edith R. and Harry B. put up a neat race to the finish, the former winning. Time, 2:38. The second heat was also taken by Edith R. in 2:41.

Waikapu cup, five furlongs—Gartelene won in 1:17, followed by Amaranth and Watossa, in the order given. Bad start but the race was well conducted. Rainer cup, best two in three—Waldo J won both heats in this race, walking around the track the first time in 2:33 and the second time in 2:13.

P. M. S. S. Co's cup, mile dash—Amarino won in 1:49 1/2. Gaiety Girl was the other horse in.

2:24 trotting and pacing to harness—Quinn's Sambo was the winner in two straight heats; time 2:21 1/2 and 2:18 1/2.

Four and a half furlongs dash—Virgie A won but was disqualified for fouling. Race given to Racine; time, 56 3/4.

Rosita Challenge cup, one mile—In a breakaway Weller went around in 1:42 1/2. He also took the even later in the day in 1:45 1/4. Billy McCluskey was a close second.

Three-eighths mile dash—Molly Connors won handily in 37 1/2.

Mule race—Kickapoo won.

Program for tomorrow and Saturday are:

JUNE 14th.

1. Half mile dash, Hawaiian bred; purse $100. Gaiety Girl, Albert H., Amethyst.
2. Merchants' Purse, 3:30 class, trotting and pacing, best two heats in three; purse $150. Edna G, Artie W, Hardly Able, Steamplough.

Entries will be published later.

HE WROTE POETRY.

George Washington's Effusions Now State Archives.

Both George Washington and Thomas Jefferson were poets—at least they wrote rhymes when they were young. Fortunately, the manuscripts have been preserved and are among the archives of the Department of State, having been purchased from their descendants with other papers by the government.

General Washington's poems were of an amorous character. Mr. Jefferson's were funeral. Washington dwelt on love; Jefferson on death. One of Washington's poems has recently been discovered to be an acrostic, which in old days was a popular trick of verse writers. He made the initial letters of his lines form the name "Frances Alexa," the last word evidently being intended for Alexander. The poem is unfinished. The muse of the youthful poet and lover probably became weary with the exertion which a successful acrostic demands. The following is the fragment:

From your bright sparkling eyes I was undone;
Ray's you have more transparent than the sun,
A midst its glory in the rising Day,
None can you equal in your bright array;
Constant in your calm and unspotted mind;
Equal to all, but will to none Prove kind,
So know, seldom, one so young,
You'll find,
Ah! woe's me, that I should love and conceal

Long have I wished, but never dare reveal
Even though severely Love's Pain I feel;
Kerxes the great was not freed from Cupid's Dart,
And all the greatest Heroes, felt the smart.

The traditions of Virginia indicate that the object of this effusion was Miss Fanny Alexander, a daughter of Captain Philip Alexander, a descendant of the Earl of Sterling, from whom the city Alexandria Va., was named. The captain owned and lived upon the estate adjoining Mount Vernon, on the north. The young lady was two years older than Washington, and was probably his first love, but nothing is known of their courtship except the evidence furnished by his poem.

Another poem of Washington's is found upon a blank page of a prosaic old account book, which contains among other things the notes of several surveys. It is supposed to have been addressed to Miss Betsy Fauntleroy, daughter of William Fauntleroy of Fredericksburg. This young woman eloped with Washington in 1772. It was the most furious love affair he ever had, except the latter one which ended with his marriage to the Widow Custis.—Chicago Record-Herald.

NEED NOT FIGHT.

The announcement is made that Mexico has signed The Hague peace conference agreement. This does not mean, however, that Mexico must go to war. Most of the other signers are fighting, but the obligation imposed does not really require a state of belligerency.—The Kansas City Journal.
